

Youth Sports Code of Conduct

Youth sports programs play an important role in promoting the emotional and physical development of children. It is therefore essential for parents, coaches and youth athletes to embrace the values of good sportsmanship. Moreover, adults involved should be models of good sportsmanship and should lead by example.

Therefore we are to be responsible for our words and actions while attending a youth sports event and shall conform my behavior to this code of conduct:

1. We will remember that children participate to have fun and that the game is for youth, not adults.
2. We will inform the coach of any physical disability or ailment that may affect the safety of our children or the safety of others.
3. We will learn the rules of the game and the policies of the league.
4. We (and any guest we bring) will be a positive role model for our children and encourage sportsmanship by showing respect and courtesy, and by demonstrating positive support for all players, coaches, officials and spectators at every game, practice, or sporting event.
5. We (and any guests we bring) will not engage in any kind of unsportsmanlike conduct with any official, coach, players, or parent such as booing and taunting, refusing to shake hands, or using profane language or gestures.
6. We will teach our children to play by the rules and to resolve conflict without resorting to hostility or violence.
7. We will demand that my child treat other players, coaches, officials, and spectators with respect regardless of race, creed, color, sex, or ability.
8. We will praise my child for competing fairly and trying hard, no matter the outcome of the score.
9. We will never ridicule or yell at my child or other participants for making a mistake or losing a competition.
10. We will promote the emotional and physical well-being of the athletes ahead of any personal desire I may have for my child to win.
11. We will respect the officials and their authority during games.
12. In the event of a disagreement, I will not question, discuss or confront coaches at the game, and will take time to speak with coaches at an agreed upon time and place.

If we fail to conform to the Youth Sports Code of Conduct we will be subject to disciplinary action including, but not limited to the following depending on the severity of the offense:

1. Verbal or Written warning
2. Suspension or ejection from current youth sports games
3. Suspension from future youth sports games
4. Suspension from youth sports season
